Dear Guests,

Welcome to our dream, which after many years has finally come true in the wild nature of Sardinia. It all began on a hillside, where we started a land improvement project by planting 300 olive trees.

As soon as our friend Pigio showed it to us, we fell in love with the place and decided to buy it. We knew it would be quite an adventure, as it was completely covered in Mediterranean scrub, with no water or electricity.

With A Domo Mea Retreat, we've tried to make a meaningful contribution to this beautiful natural environment, and we invite you to share this commitment with us by avoiding waste—especially water, which comes from a well about 200 metres deep and is affected by hot seasons and drought periods.

The access road to our dream is not the smoothest, a little rough due to the natural setting, but once you arrive, all of that will fade into the background.

And now... may your stay begin.

Mario & Adriana

The road to reach us is a little uneven, but once you arrive, the magic of this place will make you forget every difficulty.

With love, Mario & Adriana
